The Lost Teddy

Amy had a teddy bear named Brownie. It was her favorite toy. One day, after playing in the park, Amy realized Brownie was missing.

She was sad and looked everywhere. She checked behind the swings and under the slide. Amy even asked her friends if they saw Brownie. Just then, a kind old man came up with Brownie in his hands. He had found it near the benches. Amy was so happy and thanked the man. She hugged Brownie tight and promised to take better care.
